FEDERAL WORK-STUDY

Work-Study is a part-time job designed to help students obtain funding for school and gain valuable work experience while serving the community. The total amount a student may earn is determined on the basis of need with a maximum annual limit, not to exceed 20 hours per week. If you are interested in participating in the Work-Study program please indicate by marking an "X" in the appropriate box. Note: turning in this request does not guarantee you will be awarded Work-Study. You will be placed on the Work-Study waiting list. This list is on a first come, first-serve basis. If you are currently employed at UVU you cannot participate in the work study program. Work-Study is not available during the summer semester.

Please reconsider my financial aid award to include Work-Study: Fall Spring

PERKINS LOANS

The Federal Perkins loan is a need-based loan. Priority is given to Pell eligible students also eligible for loan forgiveness. Interest on the loan is paid by the federal government while you are in school, during your grace period, and during authorized periods of deferment. During periods of forbearance, you will be responsible for interest that accrues on your Perkins loans. The interest rate will be fixed at 5%. You must be enrolled at least half-time to qualify. Repayment of principal balance begins nine months after you are no longer enrolled on at least a half-time basis. If you are interested in receiving a Perkins loan please indicate by marking an "X" in the appropriate box. Note: turning in this request does not guarantee you will be awarded a Perkins loan. You will be placed on a waiting list. This list is on a first come, first-serve basis.
