TESTIMONIALS

The School of Education as exceeded every expectation I had. The faculty, staff, and administration believe in every single one of their students. They have opened the world of opportunity to me! I've learned to be a successful and effective educator by implementing what I learned in real classrooms and creating an environment for students success. If you want to be a teacher, UVU is the place to be!"

DEAN'S MESSAGE

Welcome to the School of Education!

Whether you are a new student or continuing your education, working on your certificate or minor, earning your first university degree or pursuing the next level of university credentials, or engaged with the programs and community events of the Melissa Nellesen Center for Autism, I extend a warm welcome to you. We are delighted to have you at the School of Education! The faculty and staff of the School of Education are committed to supporting you in reaching your educational goals and in utilizing the variety of programs and events we offer.

Each department of the School of Education - Elementary Education, Secondary and Special Education, Students Leadership and Success Studies, and Graduate Education - offers a range of options to pursue your academic interests and professional pathways. You can choose from courses and certificates that would contribute to navigating and advancing your college experience and to enhancing your future employment as well as select from several much needed and recognized professional undergraduate programs in education. We offer seven graduate programs where you can advance your professional qualifications and earn new credentials to support the next level of your career, all in areas that are needed in Utah and nationally. Complementing these strong academic offerings, the mission and work of the Melissa Nellesen Center for Autism supports our communities in providing opportunities for individuals on the autism spectrum.

The School of Education is a dynamic space of opportunities to pursue high quality learning, professional preparation, educational and community services, and innovation. We serve the needs of our region, the state, and beyond by engaging in productive community and professional collaborations and by offering programs that meet the needs in our communities.

We invite you to join us to pursue your educational goals and expand your opportunities by pursuing your selected pathway!

Vessela Ilieva
Dean, School of Education
