President's Message

Dear Elder Quest Friends and Colleagues,

Congratulations for the great success we had with our Spring Scholarship Fundraiser. Everyone who has mentioned it, has been pleased with the great speakers, inspiring music, delicious lunch, and the opportunity to donate to our Non-traditional Student Scholarship Fund. I am so pleased to report that Elder Quest received $13,756.00 in donations. This year, more dollars were donated than in any other year in the past. Overall, with the endowment funds and the matching operating funds, and all of your very generous donations, we were able to add $22,841.00 to the scholarship fund! Thank you all for your dedication to this remarkable program we support in Elder Quest to help deserving students.

Recently, one of our teachers, Esther Megargal, who teaches The Joy of Music, was interviewed on KBYU FM radio. She is a gifted musician and composer and told about her composition titled, Subterranean Ricochet. It was extremely interesting to hear those three low octave instruments – the bassoon, tuba, and double bass playing that number and hear Esther's remarks about it.

We've had three summer luncheons at the Sizzler, and each one of them has been a success – there were close to or more than thirty Elder Quest members in attendance each time. It was interesting to hear what each person has been doing to enjoy the summer season.

As we look forward to the coming 2017 – 2018 Elder Quest year, let me remind you that this will be a celebration of the twenty-five years since this great effort to promote lifelong learning was first organized. We are fortunate to have two of the original founding members still actively engaged in Elder Quest. They are Flora Duncan and Bill Hoglund. I am so grateful to them and the other eight people who banded together in 1992 and founded Elder Quest. Hundreds of people have benefitted from the efforts of those ten founding members. We continue to forge ahead and remember our efforts to continually be Lifelong Learners.

As we anticipate the coming year, there are many exciting adventures awaiting us in the fantastic Classes that will be presented, the opportunities we will have to enjoy Day Trips – two of those will be to the Utah Symphony Finishing Touches, another will be to visit the historic Wendover Air Force Base Museum in connection with Don Norton's class on World War II. Potpourri Lectures will continue to stimulate us with interesting subjects.

Our first Current Events activity will be the dinner at 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday, September 13, at the Culinary Arts Institute in Orem at 661 East Timpanogos Parkway (1300 North). The teachers will be introduced and will give a brief outline of the class he/she will teach.

I look forward to seeing each of you at that opening event. It's going to be another fabulous year in Elder Quest as we celebrate our 25th Anniversary.

Fran Reiser, E.Q. President

Join us for dinner* and kick off another fabulous year of Elder Quest! Come meet our amazing Elder Quest Teachers!

Dickens in America

Judith and Leonard Tourney

Monday 10:30 am

The course we would like to teach is entitled "Dickens in America." It will feature the author's journey through the United States in the 1840s when he was received as a celebrity but responded with a critique of American culture and society. We will show parts of a wonderful BBC documentary on Dickens' travels and provide useful background information on the historical and literary setting. We will also explore later works of Dickens influenced by his excursion.

Judith Olauson Tourney has a Ph.D. in performance from the University of Utah and taught acting and directing for thirty years at the University of California, Santa Barbara. A professional actor and director, she has also taught in the theatre department of BYU and the University of Utah.

Leonard Tourney has a Ph.D. from the University of California, Santa Barbara. He has taught English and creative writing at various universities, including the University of California and BYU. He is also a published novelist and freelance editor.

Judith and Leonard have recently returned from an LDS senior mission in Ottawa, Canada.

Around the World in Eighty Days Jeannie Griffiths

Tuesday 1:00 pm

A little history, geography, culture and personal stories from every region of the world.

With 196 countries in the world, which one has hundreds of different languages? What is the largest Muslim country and it's not even in the Middle East? Why is English called "A whore of a language"? What Buddhist nation offered Lincoln elephants to fight the American civil war? Come join us for a fun filled and informative class.

Jeannie Griffiths, with her husband Robert, a former diplomat with the U.S. State Department, has lived overseas for 25 years in a variety of countries. Active in teaching and volunteer activities wherever she was, Jeannie gave birth to three children, in three different countries, on three different continents. Having visited over 40 countries, come learn about the world and hear Jeannie's personal stories of life abroad.

Economics for Non-economists Robert Griffiths

Tuesday, 10:30 AM

Come learn about some the key issues of our day--the federal budget and deficits, trade policy, unemployment and welfare, and what it really takes for an economy to be productive--in plain language that relates economic policy to our everyday lives.

Following up on his course this spring on China, Robert Griffiths again draws on his 34 years living and working overseas, and his years teaching economics at the National Defense University in Washington, D.C., to help us better understand our world.

Congratulations Elder Quest!

The Joy of Music Esther Megargel Tues at 1:00 pm

The Joy of Music: How to Listen to and Enjoy Great Music of All Periods

Music is an intrinsic part of our nature. We, as human beings, have a built in attraction to music, whether we listen or perform. We will learn about some of the elements that make a piece of music great, and discover new ways to listen. What is it that makes a melody appealing, a rhythm catchy, or a harmony exciting? How do these all work together to form a satisfying work of music? No musical abilities are required, only a pair of listening ears.

This will be my fourth semester teaching the Joy of Music class. This semester we will explore different pieces from the virtually unlimited resources of recorded performances and the internet. Hopefully you will build up a listening library of music that you may turn to repeatedly for enjoyment and inspiration. I'm looking forward to seeing new and returning class members.

Esther Megargel received a Master's degree in composition from BYU in 2013. Her thesis is entitled "The Hearts of the Children," a 20 minute cantata for choir and orchestra. Her book entitled "Fifteen Organ Preludes and Postludes" is soon to be published by Lorenz Publishing Company. She lives in American Fork, and has three children and eight grandchildren.

True War Stories

Don Norton

Tuesday at 2:30

Dear Elder Questers:

Attached is a "preview" of the subject of my fall semester Elder Quest class.

Each week, we'll take up a major event or theme related to World War II, an event that is clearly the most significant historical event of the 20th century (some say "in the history of the world").

We'll (1) set forth some "facts" related to the event/theme, (2) discuss that event/theme, then (3) review some firsthand experiences of men and women involved, drawn from the 800+ oral histories of WW-II veterans I have done over the last 27 years.

"Facts" related to WW-II have changed in many ways, since formerly "classified" archives (US, German, Soviet, etc.) have become available to historians, and our general perspective of that war has changed. WW-II continues to be perhaps the most written-about topic in history, given its profound shaping of just about everything that's happened in the world the last 75 or so years.

A further note on Pearl Harbor: unbeknownst to Japanese leaders, the US had been intercepting, decoding, and reading Japanese military and diplomatic messages for several years, but the US could not make public the work of MAGIC (the name given to the "magicians" who were decrypting Japanese diplomatic intelligence). Which explains, in part, why the two navy and army leaders in Hawaii (Kimmel and Stark) had to be sacrificed.

See you in September.

The World and I

Jim Wright

Wednesday at 10:30

An intriguing and thrilling discussion of current events where all can agree to disagree.

Jim Wright

Enjoying Shakespeare

Dave Johnson and Glen Smith

Thursday 10:30 am

Join us to read and discuss the four Shakespeare Plays to be presented in the 2018 Utah Shakespeare Festival:

Othello

Merchant of Venice

Merry Wives of Windsor

Henry VI Part One

Remember, you don't have to be a Shakespeare scholar nor an academic to enjoy the great works of the Bard.

The Brothers Karamazov

Gary Browning

Thursday 2:30 pm

Gary Browning has a great love for Russian literature. He has taught Tolstoy's Anna Karenina for Elder Quest and is looking forward to offering Dostoevsky's The Karamazov Brothers this fall semester. This novel is among a small number of Gary's very favorite works. In Karamazov Dostoevsky explores and reveals profound depths of the human soul and the brilliant essence of Jesus Christ's most fundamental and ennobling teachings.

Gary requests that all class members use the same edition of the novel in order to facilitate frequent reference to centrally important quotations from the text of the novel. Inexpensive copies of the book are available from Amazon.com. The required text is: The Karamazov Brothers by Fyodor Dostoevsky translated by Ignat Avsey.

The publisher is Oxford University Press. Very important: the text should be on pp. 9-974 so that Gary can specify a page and all class members can find the quotation quickly.

After completing academic degrees at BYU, Syracuse U., and Harvard U., Gary taught at Bryn Mawr and Haverford Colleges in Pennsylvania before returning to BYU, where he taught Russian language and literature for thirty-one years. He served at the Y in various capacities, including as Russian department chair and dean of Honors Education. He and his wife Joan have served at the BYU Jerusalem Center and at Southern Virginia University. They were mission leaders of the Finland Helsinki East and the Russia Moscow Missions. Currently he serves as a traveling patriarch in the Europe East Area.

Elder Quest Friends who have Graduated

Monty Megargel

October 3, 1933—April 6, 2017

From his youth he loved the outdoors and was an avid fisherman and hunter. He served in the Army in France from 1956 to 1957. He graduated from Penn State University in 1958 with a degree in forestry. He obtained a position with the U.S. Forest Service moving to Lewis River, Washington where he worked in timber management on a ranger station.

He married Esther Lorraine Strong on June 5, 1965 in Woodland, Washington having met her through a mutual friend (actually a church based organization called the Scientific Marriage Foundation.) They were transferred to Eugene, Oregon and settled for the next thirty years in nearby Springfield. He loved to garden, hunt and fish and take long walks. He taught his children through personal example of righteous living. Monty will be sorely missed by his family.

Cyntha Hirst

Jan 31, 1926 — Jul 28, 2017

Cyntha received her Bachelor's degree from the University of Utah (1947), Master's degree from the University of Washington (1952), and her PhD from the University of Utah (1974) She was a member of the Ski Patrol at Timp Haven (Sundance) where she met Frank Hirst. Cyntha She joined the BYU faculty in 1948 as a professor in the Physical Education Dept., teaching swimming, canoeing, water safety instruction and statistics, retiring in 1990.

A Tribute found on Cyntha's page: Cyntha was my swimming teacher at BYU and also a friend at Elder Quest. We were involved with our children in swimming competitions for many years. She was always a good and dependable person – a realist as well as a dreamer. A totally honest and good person. She blessed my life.

– Julia Blair, student

Benton Patten

January 3, 1934—August, 2016

Karol June P. Patten

July 13, 1933– April, 21, 2016

Ben attended Brigham Young University where he met the love of his life, Karol June Payne. They were married for over 57 years before she crossed over in April 2016. He received his Bachelor's and Master's degree from BYU, and his Doctorate in Fine Arts from Illinois State University, Normal, Illinois. In every aspect of his life, Ben taught. He was always willing to help others achieve what they didn't think they could do.

Karol graduated with a degree in education from BYU and began her career as an elementary school teacher. She later earned a Master's degree in Library Science from Brigham Young University. Ben and Karol enthusiastically served as Church Educational Service missionaries in Tahiti, French Polynesia where they taught the High School students proficiency in English.

Here is a copy of a "poem" I like. It reminds me of one of the many reasons I like Elder Quest!
