UTAH VALLEY UNIVERSITY

Scholarship Deferment Request

Scholarships (excluding the Non-Resident Waiver, Western Undergraduate Exchange (WUE), and privately funded awards) may be deferred for up to two years if there are extenuating circumstances. Examples of extenuating circumstances are military service, religious/humanitarian service, and documented medical circumstances.

Scholarships will not be deferred while a student attends another institution of higher education.

To defer your scholarship, you must complete this form and upload it with supporting documentation. Examples of supporting documentation: a physician's statement, military orders, a mission call or letter from an ecclesiastical authority, or other related documents. All letters and statements must be written on letterhead and signed.
