What happens to my report when it is submitted through HR / Employee Relations? Policy 371 START Corrective Actions and Termination for Staff Employees Employee concern is brought to Employee Relations through EthicsPoint, phone call, email or walk-in UVU INTAKE Once a report or concern is received, an intake process is initiated. Employee UTAH VALLEY UNIVERSITY Relations will meet with employees on a wide variety of issues, listen to HUMAN RESOURCES concerns and carefully take notes. Potential issues: Employee conflict, performance management, termination, non-academic faculty issues, code of conduct violations, policy violations, etc. NO INFORMATION GATHERING FURTHER Information gathering or fact-finding can include a process in which involved parties are interviewed to collect documentation, ACTION data and facts to determine the appropriate level of action, if any. No policy violations are Confidentiality is maintained as far as reasonably possible; Employee Relations strives to preserve employee confidentiality while being reported. Reporting also completing a thorough investigation that is fair to all parties. employee wants to talk and obtain Retaliation is not tolerated at UVU. The Utah Protection of Public Employees Act protects UVU employees from adverse action information/advice. Information for reporting in good faith. is delivered and no further action is taken. REVIEW AND DETERMINATION (Policy 371:5.2) The applicable supervisor in consultation with Employee Relations will review findings from the information gathering process and determine the appropriate corrective action(s) for responsible parties. Factors for determining the appropriate corrective action(s) are outlined in policy 371; 5.2.2 NO ACTION TAKEN Investigative results are not conclusive and no further action can be advanced INFORMAL PROCESS (policy 335; 3.4). FORMAL PROCESS Informal steps are not part of an employee's Steps in the formal process are considered part of employment record and do not affect potential an employee's employment record and affect merit increases* and awards (policy 113). potential merit increases* and awards (policy 113). Verbal Warning (policy 371:5.1.2(1)) Depending on the severity of the behavior, any step • Performance Improvement Plan within the corrective action process can be skipped Training (policy 371; 5.1.1) Mediation Any step in the formal process can be appealed in If performance does not improve see formal accordance with policy 335. process. *Potential merit increase guidelines are decided year to year. Yearly information can be found at: https://mv.uvu.edu/hr/employees/service/compensation/#compensation-benefit-changes INAL WRITTEN More information can be found at the following links: WRITTEN TERMINATION WARNING UVU.edu/hr/ - Current Employee - MyUVU HR Service Center WARNING (Policy 371; 5.4) Workplace Issues and Concerns-https://my.uvu.edu/hr/employees/service/workplace-issues.html (Policy 371; 5.3.1) (Policy 371; UVU Policy 371 Corrective Action and Termination(https://policy.uvu.edu/getDisplayFile/563920ca65db23201153c221)

UVU Policy 335 Staff Grievance(https://policy.uvu.edu/getDisplayFile/58f91446871972f32d1de253)