

Saturn

Saturn is one of the planets in our solar system. It is the sixth planet from the sun and has 146 moons.

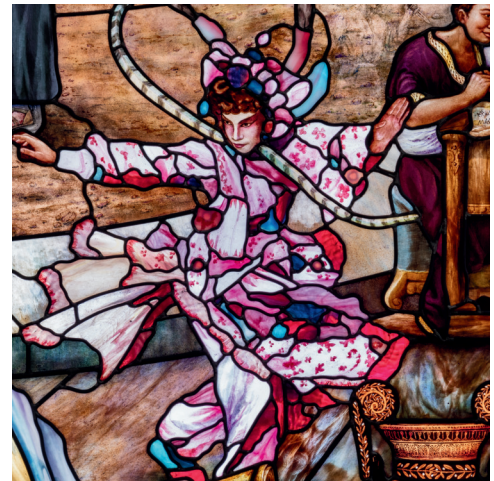

T. rex

Tyrannosaurus Rex, or T. rex was a large meat-eating dinosaur. T. rex had the strongest bite of all land animals.

Boat

This boat was made by people that lived about 3,600 years ago, but boats were first built around 800,000 years ago.

Dancer

This dancer could be telling a story from Chinese history. As in the past, today dance is used to share thoughts and feelings.

Warrior

This French warrior's name is Joan of Arc. She lead soldiers into battle and lead her country to victory.

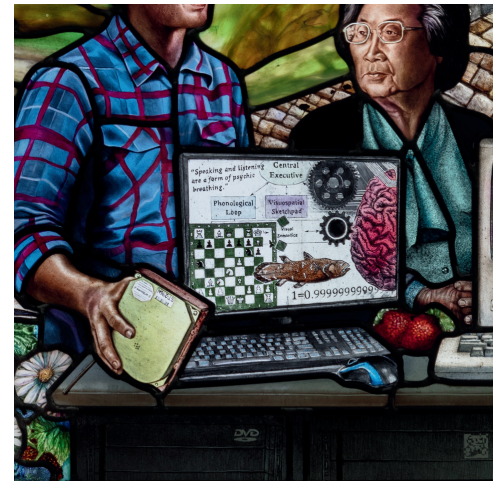

Tipi

Some Native Peoples live in tipis like this one. The shape of a tipi can help protect against strong winds.

Plane

Airplanes help us travel all around the world. The first airplane was built over 100 years ago by two brothers who owned a bike shop.

Computers

One of the computers here is the first computer people used at home. Today we use computers to connect with others all over the world.