

SEARCH & FIND

MARCH – WOMEN'S HISTORY

Sapling – Page 1

1. Florence Nightingale.

Clue: Florence Nightingale was the English woman who established nursing as we know it. Her work with statistics also had a dramatic influence on how medicine was viewed. She is depicted with a lamp due to her nickname, “The Lady of the Lamp.” She often would check on wounded soldiers in the night by lamp light.

2. Jane Austen.

Clue: Jane Austen was an English writer best known for her humorous, satirical novels that poked fun at the customs and behavior of the English gentry during the Regency era.

Image: By Unknown; Wikimedia Commons; Public Domain

3. Malala Yousafzai.

Clue: As of 2017, Pakistani education activist Malala Yousafzai is the youngest person to win the Nobel Peace Prize. She is well known for her inspiring story and stand against the Taliban even after they attempted to assassinate her.

Image: By UK Department for International Development; Wikimedia Commons; CC BY 2.0

4. Joan of Arc.

Clue: Joan of Arc was a peasant living in Medieval France. She believed she was given a mission from God to save France and expel its enemies. With no military training, she fought for France during the Hundred Years' War against England. She is one of the patron saints of France.

5. Josephine Baker.

Clue: Josephine Baker was an American-born French dancer and the first world-famous black, female entertainer. As a Civil Rights activist, she refused to perform for segregated audiences and worked with the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP).

Image: By Piax Studios of Paris; Victoria and Albert Museum; ©Victoria and Albert Museum

6. Ms. Magazine.

Clue: Founded by American feminists and social activists Gloria Steinem and Dorothy Pittman Hughes in 1971, Ms. publishes articles about women's rights and social issues.

Image: By MS.; Robert Newman; ©MS.

SEARCH & FIND

MARCH – WOMEN'S HISTORY

Sapling– Page 2

7. Trotta of Salerno.

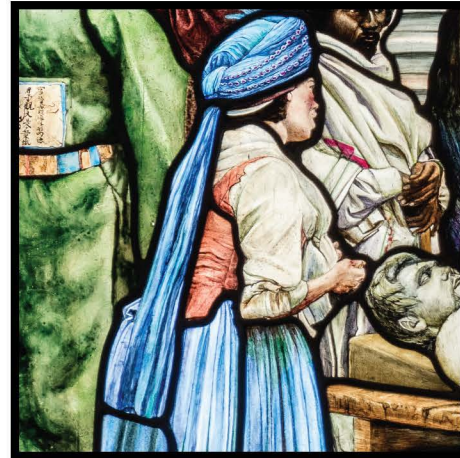

Clue: Trotta of Salerno was a female physician and author of Practica secundum Trotam (Practical Medicine According to Trotta), a book about women's medicine. It covered topics such as infertility, menstrual disorders, snakebite, and cosmetics.

8. Tale of Genji.

Clue: Written by Murasaki Shikibu, a Japanese novelist, poet and lady-in-waiting, the Japanese classic The Tale of Genji is considered the world's first novel. The featured image is a detail from the 12th-century Genji Monogatari Emaki scroll.

Image: By Heian Painters; taleofgenji.org; Public Domain

9. Mary Wortley Montagu.

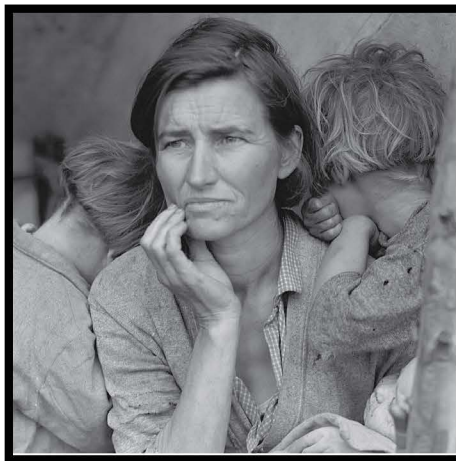

Clue: Mary Wortley Montagu was a poet and travel writer, best known for her writings about the Ottoman Empire. She also supported the use of the smallpox vaccine in England after she returned.

10. Child in a Straw Hat.

Clue: Mary Cassatt was an American Impressionist painter. She often created art that focused on the social and private lives of women and the bond between mother and child. Her Child in a Straw Hat was completed in 1886.

Image: By Mary Cassatt; Wikimedia Commons; Public Domain

11. Migrant Mother.

Clue: Dorothea Lange was a famous photojournalist who produced some of her best pictures while documenting the Great Depression in the 1930s, including Migrant Mother. Her work helped change how documentaries are produced.

Image: By Dorothea Lange; Wikimedia Commons; Public Domain

12. Aung San Suu Kyi.

Clue: Aung San Suu Kyi (1945 –) was the first woman to serve as the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Myanmar. She continues today to be heavily involved in the government of Myanmar. Her many years of service have resulted in her receiving many awards, including the Nobel Peace Prize in 1991.

Image: By Claude Truong-Ngoc; Wikimedia Commons; CC BY-SA 3.0