

2024 LEADERSHIP SYMPOSIUM & COMPANY OFFICER DEVELOPMENT

NOVEMBER 12TH AND 13TH
0800-1500 AT HALE CENTER THEATER
BREAKFAST AND LUNCH PROVIDED
NO COST TO ATTEND
SPACE IS LIMITED.
PLEASE REGISTER BELOW.

Day 1

0730 Breakfast

0800-0830 Opening remarks - Chief Olsen

0830-1030 Attack from the Burned Side - Sean Gray Cobb County

1030-1200 Pillars of the Fire Ground - Sean Gray Cobb County

1200-1230 Lunch

1230-1500 Pillars of the fire Ground - Sean Gray Cobb County

Day 2

0730 Breakfast

0800-0845 High Rise Summary and lessons learned - Goudy/Steadman

0845-0900 Break

0900-0945 Tactical Worksheets and Common Terminology - Chief Wade Russell

0945-1000 Break

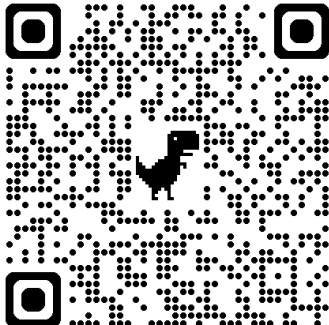

1000-1045 RIT Standards, Core Skills, Competencies & Case Studies - UFA HR 117

1045-1100 Break

1100-1145 Salt Lake City Sandhurst fire - Alexander Larsen

1145-1230 Lunch

1230-1500 Walk the Wire - Sean Gray Cobb County

REGISTER HERE

SPACE IS LIMITED

SEAN GRAY, Captain, Cobb County Fire & Emergency Services

Sean Gray currently holds the rank of Captain with Cobb County Fire and Emergency Services in Metro Atlanta and has been in the fire service since 1993. He has a bachelor's degree in Fire Safety Engineering and has attended the Naval Postgraduate School for Homeland Security. He has been a member of multiple technical panels involving fire safety research and is an appointed member of the UL Fire Safety Research Institute Advisory Board. Sean is a NFPA committee member for Fire Hose, Fire Service Training, Fundamentals of Fire Control Within a Structure Utilizing Fire Dynamics, Facilities for Fire Training and Associated Props and Fire Service Health and Safety. He has co-authored a Fire Engineering Book and DVD titled- The Evolving FireGround. He has also been published in multiple Fire Service magazines, was a FDIC H.O.T. Lead instructor, runs the website StopBelievingStartKnowing.com, and delivers evidence-based tactics training courses across the U.S.

<https://fsri.org/sean-gray>

