

COURSE DESCRIPTION

All students are responsible for bringing their IRPG (Incident Response Pocket Guide), FLHB (Fireline Handbook), and applicable PTB (Position Task Book) to each class session. Additional items to bring will be mentioned in the course acceptance letter. As a student, you are responsible for double-checking your enrollment status and current address, phone numbers, and email addresses. This will help ensure that you will receive any and all information pertaining to the class for which you are enrolled. If your supervisor has enrolled/nominated you, it's critical that you double-check your enrollment status.

To see the updated enrollment for a class, go to uvu.edu/ufra/training/wildland/schedule.html and click on the "roll" link. These are updated weekly. If you have any questions or concerns, call Dan Cather at (801) 863-7423.

S-219. IGNITIONS OPERATIONS

(*formerly S-234)

Course Description

This is an entry-level course providing training in the functional roles and responsibilities connected with firing operations. The course covers planning, ignition procedures and techniques, and equipment applicable to wildland and prescribed fire. This course also addresses the role of the ignition specialist or firing boss as the organization manages escalation from a non-complex to a complex fire situation. Note: This course is not intended to qualify or certify personnel in the use, storage, or transport of any firing device. Rather, it is to provide the potential firing boss a description of available equipment and the requirements specific to each such device.

Objectives

Upon successful completion of this course, students should be able to:

- Describe the roles and responsibilities of the single resource boss (FIRB) and the firing and prescribed fire ignition specialist (RXI2) in the planning, execution, safety, training, and coordination of an on-incident burn operation.
- Analyze an ignition/firing plan and describe its validity.
- Write an ignition/firing plan that includes ignition method, firing tactics, resource needs, and safety.

Target Group

Personnel desiring to be qualified as a firing boss, single resource (FIRB) and resource personnel involved in fire use
