CSW 61 event on "Family Capital: The Engine for Development"

Tuesday, March 21 from 1:15 to 2:45

The Nigerian Mission, 828 Second Ave, New York, NY

Sponsored by The Permanent Mission of Nigeria to the UN in collaboration with Sustainable Families Group, Universal Peace Federation, International Organization for the Family, and United Families International

Concept:

UN General Assembly Resolution (A/RES/67/142) reminds us that, "The SDG targets, especially those related to the reduction of poverty, education of children, and gender equality, are difficult to attain unless the strategies to achieve them focus on the family..." The presentations will explore family-focused strategies for achieving the SDGs. Whether in conflict and vulnerability or stability and peace, family capital is the engine for women's development in the changing world.

Program:

Mr. Akinremi Bolaji, "Opening Remarks"

Minister, Second Committee, Permanent Mission of Nigeria,

Marcia Barlow, MPA, "Family Capital, an Introduction"

Marcia Barlow is Vice President of International Programs for United Families International author of UFI's series: Guide to Family Issues and directs the development and updating of the UN Negotiating Guide. She holds a Master's Degree from Harvard University (Kennedy School of Government). Marcia and her husband, Greg, have three children and six grandchildren.

Timothy M. Rarick, PhD, "Fatherhood: Key for Women's and Girl's Economic Empowerment"

Dr. Rarick is a professor of Marriage, Family and Child Development at BYU-Idaho, specializing in Parenting and Family Advocacy & Policy. He currently serves on the Advisory Board for United Families International. He earned graduate degrees in Marriage, Family and Human Development from Kansas State University. Tim and his wife, Jodi, have four children.

Mariah Fralick, "Families Helping Families: The Changing World of Work for Refugee Mothers."

Mariah Fralick spent her youth living internationally, and later studied principles of economic and cultural integration. She founded the Interfaith Music Association, facilitated middle-school leadership classes, served as Vice-Chair of a local school board, and fostered refugee families in their resettlement process. Currently she is President of the Sustainable Family's Group. Mariah is married to Gordon Fralick. They have four children. Mariah will also moderate

Lynn R. Walsh, MSW, MDiv "Family Bonds Empower and Protect Women and Children"

Lynn Walsh teaches sociology at the University of Bridgeport, with an emphasis on family, gender and relationship education. Lynn serves as the Co-chair of the United Nations NGO Committee on the Family, New York. She is the Director of the Office of the Family, Universal Peace Federation (UPFI). She and her husband, Dr. Thomas Walsh, President of UPFI, have two sons and one grand-daughter.
