

Dr. Sara Ulloa

Dr. Ulloa is a Chair, Languages and Cultures department at Utah Valley University & UIMF Advisor. Dr. Ulloa has engaged in projects and organizations to aid women and children since 2007. Her current research interest includes Andean women and children's issues, and service learning in second language acquisition. She hosted in Peru the Third International Women of the Mountains conference and participated at the RIO+20 United Nations Conference on Sustainable Development in June 2012.