

Dustin Carroll

Lieutenant Colonel Dustin Carroll is the State Partnership Program (SPP) Director in the Joint Force Headquarters for the Utah National Guard. He directs all security cooperation and partnering activities between the Utah National Guard and the Royal Moroccan Armed Forces.

As a Political-Military Affairs Strategist he plans and directs all SPP activities at the state level, manages an SPP staff, and directly advises the Utah National Guard Adjutant General. Lt. Col. Carroll develops initiatives aligned with the United States Africa Command's Theater Security Cooperation Plan as well as the Integrated Country Strategy of the U.S. Embassy Chief of Mission (Ambassador).

Lt. Col Carroll's responsibilities are to plan engagements with Utah's units and forces to enhance their readiness and to provide cultural experience as well as garner accesses and maintain favorable U.S. relations. He has planned and executed bilateral events with Morocco over a variety of themes to include humanitarian aid, de-mining, disaster preparedness and response, cybersecurity, intelligence, special operations, aviation, artillery operations, emergency medicine, and military youth exchanges.

Lt. Col. Carroll is a native of Utah and graduated from Brigham Young University with an undergraduate degree in Computer Science and spent most of his military career in cybersecurity, network warfare, and cyber infrastructure engineering and installation. He has a Master's degree from the Air Force's Air University in Military Operational Art and Science. He lives in Utah Valley with his wife and four children.
