

Host:

UIMF Mission:

- I. To raise awareness of mountain sustainability topics especially in Utah
- II. To bring the public into contact with international guests and foreign dignitaries
- III. To bring communities together to recognize their shared mountainous heritage.

Website: www.utahimf.org

E-mail: utahimf@uvu.edu

Our Sponsors:

Roundtable on Bears Ears
National Monument

Date: Wednesday, November 10th,
2021

Time: 12:00pm

Livestream:

<https://www.uvu.edu/global/events.html>

Presenters:

Mr. Lynn Hillstead Orem-Lindon Rotary President 2021-22

Lynn Hillstead, CPA/ABV graduated from BYU and worked in Provo and Orem as a tax and business valuation practitioner for 40 years (now retired), and now serves as trustee of private trusts and on the board of directors of privately held companies. He has been a member of the Rotary club for nearly 35 years.

Mrs. Sarah E. Hunt CEO and President, Joseph Rainey Center for Public Policy

Sarah E. Hunt is a leader in conservative clean energy policy and a successful social entrepreneur. As co-founder and CEO of the Joseph Rainey Center for Public Policy, she leads public policy research and leadership development programs by and for women, minorities, and mavericks.

Prior to founding the Rainey Center, Hunt launched a clean energy program at the American Legislative Exchange Council and a climate change program at the Niskanen Center. Early in her career she served as Manager, State Issues and Ethics Officer at the consulting firm Stateside Associates and practiced political law at a boutique law firm in the Pacific Northwest.

Her commentary on energy policy is regularly sought by publications including the Wall Street Journal, Bloomberg, Politico, E&E Newswire, The Guardian, Axios, and the Scientific American. A volunteer advocate for children's rights, Ms. Hunt's efforts to help young women escape abusive homeschool environments were profiled by the Washington Post Magazine. She holds a BA in political science from the University of New Mexico, a JD from Willamette University College of Law, an LLM in international environmental law from Georgetown University Law Center, and an MPS in global advocacy from the George Washington University Graduate School of Political Management. She is admitted to the bar in Washington, DC, Oregon, and the 9th Circuit.

Mr. Dustin Jansen Associate Professor, American Indian Studies, UVU

Dustin Jansen is an enrolled member of the Navajo Nation. Dustin teaches American Indian Studies at UVU; serves as a tribal Court Judge for the Confederated Tribes of the Goshute; and is serving as Director of Utah Division of Indian Affairs. Since 2006 Dustin has worked in the field of Indian Law and Policy as either a Judge or Attorney. Dustin received his AS from Utah Valley State College; BA from Brigham Young University; and his JD from the University of Utah. Dustin and his wife just celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary. They have four children and currently reside in Mapleton Utah.

Event Agenda:

Welcoming Remarks: Amy Barnett, UVU Program Director - Global Events and Hosting, & Dallas Karren, UIMF President,

Intro: Abdulrahman Alghanmi

1. Greetings: Lynn Hillstead, Orem-Lindon Rotary President,

Intro: Byan Alghanmi

2. Speaker: Sarah Hunt, CEO & President: Joseph Rainey Center for Public Policy,

Intro: Anthony Campbell

3. Speaker Dusty Jansen, JD, UVU Professor of Native American Studies,

4. Q&A Session / Closing Remarks by Dallas Karren, UIMF President