

Dastan Abikov

Dastan Abikov is President Emeritus Bishkek Nomad Rotaract Club, The Kyrgyz Republic. Dastan Abikov is the President of the Sustainable Mountain Development Foundation and CEO of Neoplace. He is a former president of the Rotaract and Interact clubs in Bishkek. With over 9 years in business and social activism, is an entrepreneur and venture investor. He earned his bachelor's degree in economics from Kyrgyz Economic University and completed an Executive Program at Harvard Business School. He actively supports artists from the Kyrgyz Republic through the Ilgeri Foundation and supports sports through the Jiu-Jitsu Federation, where more than 1,000 athletes, including two world champions, have thrived. He is an ultramarathon runner in Death Valley. He is also passionate about the environment and has planted 1,400 trees.