

Handen Torsak

Handen was born and raised in Provo, Utah. He attended Provo High and graduated with his associate's degree a few weeks before he graduated high school. Following high school, he served a mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in both the Kentucky Louisville and Czech/Slovak missions, the majority of that time living in Slovakia. After returning home and continuing his education, he was granted the opportunity to intern in the U.S. Senate for Senator John Barrasso of Wyoming. He is currently a Senior at UVU studying Political Science.
