

Jinwoo Song.

Born in South Korea, came to the United States in 2017 to study political science. I served in the military for two years in South Korea. While I served in the military and my home country, the mountain environment there was really helpful to take the example of UIMF and the mountain forum.