

Insights into his motivation,
contributions, and
legacy in community development

Spencer Mack: A Journey of Community Service

By LOUYOKO NIANZA

Early Motivation and Joining Rotary

Spencer joined Rotary nearly 40 years ago, initially motivated by the opportunity to meet community leaders and grow his business network.

His passion for community service and making a positive impact became a driving force in his continued commitment to Rotary's mission, both locally and internationally.

Commitment to Community Service

- Spencer's service philosophy centers on the idea that servicing others is equally beneficial to the one serving.
- Through Rotary, he has developed strong friendships with like-minded individuals dedicated to improving the lives of others.
- He believes that meaningful connections in service create a stronger, more unified community.

Impact on Local Development

Spencer highlights the role of the Orem-Lindon Rotary Club in promoting local economic development and community unity.

He feels the club has strengthened community bonds by inspiring members to give back and work towards collective goals.

The club's diverse and committed members have contributed to positive changes in Orem and the broader Utah community.

Family Influence and Legacy

- Spencer was raised in a family with a strong tradition of service. Influenced by his grandfather, a district governor in Arizona, Spencer embraced the values of community service early on.
- His wife, Jane, recently joined Rotary as well, reflecting their shared commitment. Through their actions, they hope to pass on this legacy to future generations.

Personal Reflections on Utah

Spencer appreciates Utah's unique four-season beauty and the strong sense of community. He values the safety and friendliness of the state, and is committed to preserving these qualities through his community engagements. His involvement with family, neighbors, and community initiatives reflects his dedication to fostering a supportive environment in Utah.

Thanks

