- The Writing Center is a free resource available seven days a week to students from all colleges and majors
- Consultants can assist with any part of the writing process, from understanding assignments and getting started to final edits and revision

Programs & Resources

- Writers can receive individualized support from trained and certified writing consultants in-person, online, and via asynchronous video feedback
- In-person & online tutorials are 25-or-50-minutes in length, with 5-10 minutes designated for the Client Report Form
- The Writing Center offers 50+ handouts on a range of writing concepts
- English language learning support provided through writing, reading, speaking, listening, and grammar practice

What to Expect from a Consultation

During a session, writers and consultants work together to

- identify goals for the session
- read and discuss the writer's work
- review or learn writing concepts
- apply and practice writing principles
- plan writing and revision tasks

Although consultants can assist writers with a wide range of topics and tasks, writers and consultants will determine a focus for each session rather than covering everything in a single session.

Making the Most of Your Visit

Schedule Early

While the Writing Center welcomes drop-in appointments, schedule online to guarantee a time and a location (Fulton Library 208 or online) that works best for you.

Come Prepared

Bring notes and questions about your work, and be ready to participate and collaborate with a writing consultant.

Arrive or login a few minutes early, so you do not miss your appointment.

Share Assignments

Attach your work and assignment guidelines to your appointment, or prepare to share them during your session.

Look for a post-session email outlining what you and your consultant discussed. This can be uploaded for assignment credit.
